PARK YOURSELF AT HOME

There's a chance you may never want to leave your own neighbourhood. One of the world's most beautifully manicured and lovingly maintained parks, the city's horticultural jewel, QE Park, offers the tropical allure of the Bloedel Conservatory, and is home to every tree species native to Canada. Vacation? You may never need one again.

> FEATURES

We hear the words "once in a lifetime" every so often, but how many times is it true? Well, this time, it certainly is. To conduct the beautiful details of daily living while overlooking Vancouver's revered Queen Elizabeth Park. To enjoy ease of access to this city's most cherished locations. To be surrounded by quality finishings in spacious quarters that can only be described as luxurious. And to do it all in one of the most prestigious, up and coming neighbourhoods in the country.

This is living at Empire. And this is once in a lifetime.
